

>All states should be allowed to legislate laws to protect the privacy of their citizens. My quality of life is much improved by the drastic reduction of cold calls I receive. The more lenient federal regs. are no doubt the result of intense lobbying by those with a monetary interest. The FCC should follow the lead of NJ not the other way around.